WAKEFIELD HOSPICE

ACCUMULATOR £ CHALLENGE

£50, 50 days, One Incredible Challenge...
How much can your team make?

Ready to turn £50 into something extraordinary?

Welcome to the Wakefield Hospice Accumulator Challenge where your team has one mission: take a £50 loan and grow it into as much money as possible for local hospice care.

You'll have between 11th January 2027 and 2nd March 2027 to put your creativity, teamwork and entrepreneurial skills to the test. Will you host an office quiz, organise a raffle, run a sweepstake, take on a sponsored challenge or come up with a completely original fundraising idea? The sky really is the limit.

Step up to the challenge

As this is our inaugural Accumulator Challenge, we're just as excited as you are to see what everyone comes up with. Whether you're fiercely competitive or simply looking for a fun way to bring your team together, this is your chance to make a real impact for local patients and their families.

Don't worry you won't be left to figure it all out on your own. Throughout the challenge we'll be sharing fundraising ideas, celebrating your successes and cheering you on every step of the way. Our team is always on hand if you need advice, inspiration or a little help getting started.

So... are you ready to accept the challenge?

How your support will help

At Wakefield Hospice, we believe everyone deserves to live well, with dignity, comfort and the best possible quality of life, whatever the future holds.

For more than 35 years, we have provided compassionate, specialist care for people living with life-limiting illnesses, supporting not only our patients but their families and loved ones too.

From our Inpatient Unit and day services to emotional support, complementary therapies and bereavement care, we help people make the most of every moment. We create a space where patients can feel safe, comfortable and cared for, while giving families the time, support and reassurance they need during some of life's most difficult moments.

But we cannot do this alone. As a charity, we rely on the generosity of our community to help fund our services and ensure local people can access the care they need, when they need it most.

"I have learned that people don't just come here to die, they can come here to have happiness"

Wedding bells at Wakefield Hospice

In October 2026 Katerina was admitted to Wakefield Hospice.

Alongside her partner Stanley, they decided that whatever the future held, they wanted to get married... so our hospice team sprang into action to make it happen.

From arranging the formalities to organising food and drink, flowers, outfits, and transforming the room into a beautiful wedding venue, the couple were given a day to remember for a lifetime and beyond.

Indeed, it's moments like this that show what hospice care is truly about, helping people make the most of the time that matters to them, surrounded by the people they love.

Every pound you raise makes a difference. Your support helps us provide expert care and create precious moments for patients and families. Thank You.

Need a little inspiration?

There's no right or wrong way to do it – the most successful teams are often the most creative! Here are a few ideas to get you started...

Bake, Sell, Repeat

Use your £50 to buy baking ingredients and host a series of cake sales, coffee mornings or even a "Bake Off" competition. Reinvest your profits into your next bake sale to keep growing your total.

Auction Amazing Experiences

Ask colleagues, customers and suppliers to donate prizes or experiences, then host an online or live auction. Use your starter fund to promote your event or purchase one standout prize to attract more bids.

Make Your Money Multiply

Think like an entrepreneur! Use your £50 to buy products or materials to sell, then reinvest your profits into your next fundraising idea. How much can you grow your original investment?

Get Competitive

Organise a five-a-side football tournament, golf day, office Olympics or quiz night. Use your £50 towards venue hire, equipment or prizes and charge teams an entry fee.

Keep the Wheels Turning

Hire or borrow an exercise bike and challenge your team to keep it moving throughout the challenge. Ask colleagues, friends and family to sponsor every mile, hour or day completed.

Step up to the Challenge

Take on a sponsored walking, cycling or stair-climbing challenge as a team. Your £50 could cover refreshments, medals or other essentials to keep everyone motivated.

Run a Sweepstake

Put your £50 towards a prize and create a fun sweepstake for colleagues, customers or suppliers to get involved with. Whether it's a sporting event, TV show, workplace prediction challenge or something completely different, sweepstakes are a simple way to get lots of people involved and turn a small investment into a bigger fundraising total.

Get Creative with Crafts

Use your £50 to buy materials and create something people will love to buy. From handmade cards and seasonal decorations to personalised gifts or unique office creations, a little creativity can go a long way. Sell your creations to colleagues, friends, family or customers and watch your fundraising grow.

Whatever you decide to do, we will be here to help, offer support or simply cheer you on from the sidelines throughout your 50 days.
