“It’s my simple way of making sure the care mum received will be available to other families now and in the future”

The benefits of becoming a Friend of Wakefield Hospice and giving a monthly gift...

Benefits to you

It’s simple, convenient and secure

Many of us want to support causes close to our hearts but may not always have the time to fundraise. With just a few clicks, you can set up a regular donation that suits you.

You’ll be joining a compassionate community

Join our dedicated group of supporters who share a commitment to ensuring expert care for those who need it most.

We’ll tell you the difference your support is making

We will keep you up to date with regular communications about the difference your support is making.

Benefits to us

You’ll help us to plan for the future

Regular gifts provide us with the opportunity to plan long-term support more effectively.

It allows us to develop our vital care services

We are continually looking for ways we can best support our entire community, but can only do so with the help of people like you.

Your regular donation provides a sustainable source of income

With the continued uncertainty around the current financial climate, your gift provides a predictable vital source of regular income to support our charity’s activities.

£5

per month

for a year could provide vital nurse care for local patients

£10

per month

for a year could provide two day-therapy sessions, offering emotional and wellbeing support

per month

for a year could provide a full course of complementary therapy for a patient, offering emotional support and pain and symptom relief

Your support is more than just a monthly donation to your local hospice. You help to make the best of every moment, every month, for everyone under our care.

Thank You.

The care me and mum received at Wakefield Hospice meant so much... the team ensured we were both supported, both looked after, it meant the world ”
